Once you are enrolled in a class you will see the banner at the top of the page asking you to confirm intent. When you click Confirm your Schedule a new window will open showing your intent and balance. Please read the information in green carefully regarding the Acceptance of Financial Obligation.

Please read the information in green carefully regarding the Acceptance of Financial Obligation.

Once you click I Agree a new confirmation message will appear.

You can then print your invoice and make arrangements to pay and get your books.

* In the event you have previously enrolled in another class, the INTENT confirmed for that class will also be "confirmed" intent for any courses you add after the first enrollment.
