

A service of Hutchinson Community College

Reno County On Board was developed by The Volunteer Center and Young Professionals of Reno County in an effort to help identify a larger, more varied pool of people willing to serve on area non-profit boards of directors, advisory groups and community committees. Reno County On Board serves as a resource for organizations looking for individuals interested in serving in leadership positions. Selection, nomination, or appointment of individuals referred from the On Board registry ultimately is up to each organization.
