

Observation & Assessment of Young Children - CC110

Section: CC110 816242S Online

Section Type: Lecture

Credit Hours: 3.00

Course Description: A study of the role of observation to assess and monitor the development of children aged birth to five, as well as learn appropriate techniques for interacting with young children.

Course Notes: This course will cover different observation and assessment techniques used in early childhood settings, and how to use assessment information to guide instruction and evaluate programs.

Section Notes: This course will cover different observation and assessment techniques used in early childhood settings, and how to use assessment information to guide instruction and evaluate programs.

WHEN

Days: Arranged

Times: Arranged

Start Date: 01/21/2025

End Date: 05/08/2025

WHERE

Online

INSTRUCTOR

JENNIFER FORKER

BOOKS

Title: ASSESSMENT IN EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION 8TH Edition

Author: WORTHAM & HARDIN

Required: Yes