

Technology for Teachers - ED206

Section: ED206 011252S Main Campus

Credit Hours: 3.00

Course Description: Current educational technologies and effective strategies for integrating technology in the classroom. Explore and demonstrate how educational technology can support teaching and learning and enhance personal and professional productivity in the 21st Century.

Course Notes: Basic computer skills such as navigating the internet, using educational technology applications, and effective communication skills, as well as access to a device/computer and reliable internet connection will be required.

Section Notes: Basic computer skills such as navigating the internet, using educational technology applications, and effective communication skills, as well as access to a device/computer and reliable internet connection will be required.

WHEN Start Date: 01/12/2026 End Date: 05/06/2026

Days:

MWF

12:40 PM - 1:40 PM

Campus: Main Campus

Building: Lockman Hall

Room: LH217

INSTRUCTOR

JENNIFER FORKER

BOOKS

Title: (CU) TECHNOLOGY INTEGRATION FOR MEANINGF 3RD Edition

Author: CENNAMO

Required: Yes