English Composition IA - EN101

Section: EN101 001261S Main Campus
Credit Hours: 3.00
Course Description: Completion of Composition 1A allows students to develop and structure writing that meets academic standards using conventions of composition with an emphasis on development, editing, peer collaboration, and responsible communication. Course covers instruction in research, documentation, and ethical integration of research. Selected readings for models and criticism are used.
Course Notes: 16+ ACT Reading and English and B or higher in most recent high school English Course or 2.7+ high school cumulative unweighted GPA and B or higher in most recent high school English course.
Section Notes: 16+ ACT Reading and English and B or higher in most recent high school English Course or 2.7+ high school cumulative unweighted GPA and B or higher in most recent high school English course.
WHEN Start Date: 08/19/2026 End Date: 12/09/2026
Days:
MWF
8:00 AM - 9:00 AM
Campus: Main Campus
Building: Lockman Hall
Room: LH203

INSTRUCTOR
AMBER CARITHERS
BOOKS
No textbooks for this course.