

English Composition IA - EN101

---

Section: EN101 005251S Main Campus

Credit Hours: 3.00

Course Description: Completion of Composition 1A allows students to develop and structure writing that meets academic standards using conventions of composition with an emphasis on development, editing, peer collaboration, and responsible communication. Course covers instruction in research, documentation, and ethical integration of research. Selected readings for models and criticism are used.

Course Notes: 16+ ACT Reading and English and B or higher in most recent high school English Course or 2.7+ high school cumulative unweighted GPA and B or higher in most recent high school English course.

Section Notes: 16+ ACT Reading AND English AND B or higher in most recent high school English course; OR 2.7+ high school cumulative unweighted GPA AND B or higher in most recent high school English course.

WHEN Start Date: 08/20/2025 End Date: 12/10/2025

Days:

MWF

9:10 AM - 10:10 AM

Campus: Main Campus

Building: Lockman Hall

Room: LH203

INSTRUCTOR

AMBER CARITHERS

BOOKS

Title: THE LITTLE SEAGULL HANDBOOK 5E Edition

Author: RICHARD BULLOCK

Required: Yes