English Composition IA - EN101

Section: EN101 013261S Main Campus
Credit Hours: 3.00
Course Description: Completion of Composition 1A allows students to develop and structure writing that meets academic standards using conventions of composition with an emphasis on development, editing, peer collaboration, and responsible communication. Course covers instruction in research, documentation, and ethical integration of research. Selected readings for models and criticism are used.
Course Notes: 16+ ACT Reading and English and B or higher in most recent high school English Course or 2.7+ high school cumulative unweighted GPA and B or higher in most recent high school English course.
Section Notes: 16+ ACT Reading and English and B or higher in most recent high school English Course or 2.7+ high school cumulative unweighted GPA and B or higher in most recent high school English course.
WHEN Start Date: 08/24/2026 End Date: 12/11/2026
Days:
MTWRF
11:48 AM - 12:42 PM

INSTRUCTOR
NICK DRYDEN
BOOKS
Title: THE LITTLE SEAGULL HANDBOOK 4E Edition
Author: BULLOCK
Required: Yes