English Composition IA - EN101

Section: EN101 024261S Hutchinson
Credit Hours: 3.00
Course Description: Completion of Composition 1A allows students to develop and structure writing that meets academic standards using conventions of composition with an emphasis on development, editing, peer collaboration, and responsible communication. Course covers instruction in research, documentation, and ethical integration of research. Selected readings for models and criticism are used.
Course Notes: 16+ ACT Reading and English and B or higher in most recent high school English Course or 2.7+ high school cumulative unweighted GPA and B or higher in most recent high school English course.
Section Notes: 16+ ACT Reading and English and B or higher in most recent high school English Course or 2.7+ high school cumulative unweighted GPA and B or higher in most recent high school English course.
WHEN Start Date: 08/17/2026 End Date: 11/05/2026
Days:
MWF
12:46 PM - 2:00 PM
Campus: Hutchinson
Building: Hutchinson High School
Room: HUHS01

INSTRUCTOR
KEIRA DOBBS
BOOKS
No textbooks for this course.