

English Composition IA - EN101

Section: EN101 050261S Main Campus

Credit Hours: 3.00

Course Description: Completion of Composition 1A allows students to develop and structure writing that meets academic standards using conventions of composition with an emphasis on development, editing, peer collaboration, and responsible communication. Course covers instruction in research, documentation, and ethical integration of research. Selected readings for models and criticism are used.

Course Notes: 16+ ACT Reading and English and B or higher in most recent high school English Course or 2.7+ high school cumulative unweighted GPA and B or higher in most recent high school English course.

Section Notes: 16+ ACT Reading and English and B or higher in most recent high school English Course or 2.7+ high school cumulative unweighted GPA and B or higher in most recent high school English course.

GoesselHS

WHEN Start Date: 08/21/2026 End Date: 12/11/2026

Days:

MWF

12:35 PM - 1:21 PM

INSTRUCTOR

NICK DRYDEN

BOOKS

No textbooks for this course.