

Livestock Management - FM109

Section: FM109 001252S Main Campus

Credit Hours: 3.00

Course Description: Principles of livestock production and management; practical application of breeding, selection, reproduction, health and marketing systems and techniques; emphasis on management systems of raising, growing and finishing beef, sheep and swine; information on horse production and management.

WHEN Start Date: 01/14/2026 End Date: 05/06/2026

Days:

W

1:50 PM - 4:50 PM

Campus: Main Campus

Building: Lockman Hall

Room: LH002

INSTRUCTOR

BEN WILLIAMS

BOOKS

No textbooks for this course.