

World History to 1600 - HI103

Section: HI103 001193S Online

Section Type: Lecture

Credit Hours: 3.00

Course Description: An exploration of world civilizations, both Western (Near East, Greece, Rome, Medieval and Renaissance Europe) and non-Western (India, China, Japan, Africa, and the Americas), which will examine important cultural, political, and economic connections throughout the world. Key topics will include the formation of human civilization, the rise and fall of states and empires, and the development and spread of world religions.

WHEN

Days: Arranged

Times: Arranged

Start Date: 06/01/2020

End Date: 07/23/2020

WHERE

Online

INSTRUCTOR

ERIC DUDLEY

BOOKS

No textbooks for this course.