Health Information Systems - HT275

Section: HT275 816192S Online
Section Type: Lecture
Credit Hours: 2.00
Course Description: This course addresses concepts of information systems specific to healthcare and public health applications. Students will be introduced to health information technology (HIT) standards, health-related data structures, software applications, and enterprise information architecture in healthcare and public health organizations.
WHEN Days: Arranged
Times: Arranged
Start Date: 01/14/2020
End Date: 03/06/2020
WHERE Online
INSTRUCTOR
EDITH CLARK
BOOKS
Title: HEALTH IT AND EHRS PRINCIPLES AND PRACTICE 6TH Edition
Author: AMATAYAKUL
Required: Yes