Bench Work - MC110

Section: MC110 001261S Newton
Credit Hours: 1.00
Course Description: Students will be provided the opportunity to learn and practice bench work skills such as filing, drilling, tapping, deburring and layout for projects. They will gain valuable practical experience in the use of various hand tools by producing basic bench work projects. Topics will include safety, print reading, job planning, and quality control.
Course Notes: Simultaneous enrollment in MC115 Machining I is encouraged.
Section Notes: Simultaneous enrollment in MC115 Machining I is encouraged.
WHEN Start Date: 09/02/2026 End Date: 10/16/2026
Days:
MWF
8:00 AM - 10:55 AM
Campus: Newton
Building: Newton Brooks Trade Center
Room: NWB105

INSTRUCTOR
CLAYTON BAUGHMAN
BOOKS
Title: MACHINISTS' READY REFERENCE 10TH Edition
Author: WEINGARTNER
Required: No