

Care of the Family - NR208

---

Section: NR208 001251S Main Campus

Section Type: Lecture

Credit Hours: 4.00

Course Description: Concepts and theories related to the promotion of health and wellness during the childbearing and childrearing years. Nursing interventions used in health promotion, risk reduction, clinical decision-making and management of the woman, childbearing and childrearing family, including working with usual childhood issues and with children who require acute and chronic care.

Course Notes: Course offered fall semester of the Tradition Program second year or summer semester of the Online Bridge Program.

Section Notes: Course offered fall semester of the Tradition Program second year or summer semester of the Online Bridge Program.

WHEN

Days: MT

Times: 09:00 AM - 11:00 AM

Start Date: 08/25/2025

End Date: 12/08/2025

WHERE

Campus: Main Campus

Building: Peel Allied Health Center

Room: PC201

INSTRUCTOR

STACI FORD

BOOKS

Title: MATERNAL CHILD NURSING CARE 7TH Edition

Author: PERRY

Required: Yes