

Clinical Training I - RA201

Section: RA201 001251S Main Campus

Section Type: Lecture

Credit Hours: 8.00

Course Description: Entry-level training as professional, ethical, and safe radiographer to include the application of radiologic science theory and techniques. Performed under the direct supervision of a registered radiologic technologist.

Course Notes: Involves training in the imaging sciences conducted at health care facilities. Students will be assigned a training facility by program faculty prior to beginning training. Corequisites RA210 & RA211

Section Notes: Involves training in the imaging sciences conducted at health care facilities. Students will be assigned a training facility by program faculty prior to beginning training. Corequisites RA210 & RA211

WHEN

Days: Arranged

Times: Arranged

Start Date: 08/20/2025

End Date: 12/11/2025

WHERE

Face-to-Face

INSTRUCTOR

TODD SAZAMA

BOOKS

No textbooks for this course.