

Clinical Training III - RA203

Section: RA203 001243S Main Campus

Section Type: Lecture

Credit Hours: 5.00

Course Description: Continued supervised practice of radiologic theory and techniques learned in previous Clinical Training courses. Application of quality assurance practices and introduction to diagnostic imaging management. Demonstration of professional and patient care skills that meet or exceed standards expected of a registered radiographer.

Course Notes: Training in the imaging sciences conducted at health care facilities. Program faculty will assign a training facility prior to beginning training. Corequisite: RA213 Radiographic Principles

Section Notes: Training in the imaging sciences conducted at health care facilities. Program faculty will assign a training facility prior to beginning training. Corequisite: RA213 Radiographic Principles

WHEN

Days: Arranged

Times: Arranged

Start Date: 06/02/2025

End Date: 07/24/2025

WHERE

Face-to-Face

INSTRUCTOR

BECCA POLAND

BOOKS

No textbooks for this course.